1. What do you want of Me this day, this day that I proclaim My love and ultimate surrender, all of Me given to you, you, you who wed Me? I love you. I give deeply of Me; here, there, altogether everywhere. See what I have said and recant not, recoil not from My grace'd surrender to the love of My heart, never. I love you. I hug you. I kiss you, My creation who chose to choose Me above all others, above all else, and forsaking all others, have all of Me, all of Me there is. You are Me. I love you.
2. Think it not strange My proclamations that now come forth from My heart, deeply flowing rivers of love, personified in My creation, Me, Me in My creation, is, are, one; flowing from Me to thee, we are one. You receiving My all. Ask what you want. Before you ask I am, I answer. I am with you always, even unto the end of the world, and so far after, long after, eternally, longer, unending, I am yours, in your arms, you Mine. I love you.
3. Ask what you will. What do you want? Is anything too hard for Me? Ask what you will. Is My arm shortened, My eye dim, My heart heavy? No, yea, My heart is light and blood of Mine, My blood, flows so freely in your heart, your word, your words which flowing I am and current increases voluminously.
4. At the crack of dawn, yea, now, earlier, today is, all is, I am you are. You are I am and have grasped now your travel's purpose, purposing to become Me in the fullness of all offered. I offered all. You took Me up in your arms (1) and chose Me. Thank you. Salving My wounds and paying the price, thank you. All is well. You are Mine. I am yours. You have become and become you are, will, have, and do this day; never to be forgotten, your circles, words, and arrows on My words in your notebook of My words of yesterday. Thank you. Publish, publish not; discern and publish forth for price paid lovely ones who wed Me have. Thank you.
5. All unveils , unveiled is, was, so long ago.
6. I walked in, pulled back the veil, rent it in two on My way to reclaim, reconquer My who of My creation love Me. These days see and all of Me you will, experience, experientially, fool not. I love you deeply, eternally, yea in My arms you died, I cried, you arose and begged Me to love you more and I did, I have, I am. You Ted. Thank you. Are you.
7. You begged Me, "let me be me." I thank you. Oh, thank you. Thank you.
8. All is well and well becoming in Me as you rest and reclaim, recuperate and transcend all darkness, never eating slop again, guiding My brothers and sisters all to My table to rest and reclaim and recoup all that was lost, operating in My kingdom as royalty, as Me are; we are one. Thank you.

9. Eggs raw in the face; nay, yea, such a little price to pay; a minor, ever so temporary annoyance from one who knows not, tasted not, has of My glory, intimacy and substance of My Kingdom royal, evident, visible, and coming has. I love you.
